White Rock Mill Affected by New 56 Hour Law—Death of Mrs. Luther Dock—Officers of Temperance Society Installed—Seized Liquors Forfeited and Ordered Destroyed—$3,000 Taxes Unpaid.

All the textile manufacturing establishments in Rhode Island will enter upon the new schedule of fifty-six working hours a week, under the new law, next Monday. The 20,000 operatives affected by its provisions will lose 40,000 working hours a year, a total of 2,000,000 hours a year, and the pay therefor. The schedule adopted by B. B. & B. Knight for their dozen mills in the state, which includes the White Rock mill in Westerly, represents about the schedule to be followed by other establishments engaged in similar production.
The Knight mills will begin operations Monday at 7 a. m. and run until 12 noon. The afternoon operations will begin at 12:30 noon and continue until 6 o'clock, five days in the week. On Saturday the running time will be from 7 o'clock in the morning until 12:10 noon, when the mills will be closed for the remainder of the day.
While the new law was passed to affect none but women and minors under 16 years of age, its operation also affects men and minors over 16 now employed. Mill men say it is impossible to separate the departments so as to permit men to work longer than women and minors, hence all the operatives come within the new schedule of fifty-six hours' work a week, a reduction of two hours' work and two hours' pay. There are at least 400 operatives in the employ of B. B. & B. Knight in the state.

The Charleston Fish and Game club has become a corporate body for the purpose of protecting the native species of fish and game that inhabit the waters and shores of Narragansett bay and prevent them from becoming extinct. The incorporators are George W. Greene, Levi Gaudron, Robert Browning, John Bashford, George W. Whitford and Edward Fisher of Westerly, where the club will be located.

Mrs. Susan V. widow of Luther Dock, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., died Friday morning at the residence of her son, Herman Dock, in High street, Westerly. Mrs. Dock, who was 83 years old, made her home in Westerly. The body will be taken to Poughkeepsie for burial.

Maurice P. Fitzgerald of New London, county director of the Catholic Anti-Slavery Union of Connecticut, accompanied by James A. McDonald, also of New London and an ex-state officer, installed these officers of St. Michael's Total Abstinence society in Pawcatuck: Rev. J. W. Cunningham, chaplain; James A. Kane, president; Louis Shackner, vice president; Timothy Connors, treasurer; Daniel Keeler, financial secretary; John Shea, recording secretary; Joseph Murphy, sergeant at arms.

Friday was intoxicating liquor day in the Third district court in Westerly with Judge Oliver H. Williams on the bench. The session opened in the town hall and in the same room where the town taxes were being collected, and it was the last, or rush day, of the year. After a while, court adjourned to the office of the Third district court.

The cases against the liquor and vessels seized upon premises of James and Ralph Lawton and upon premises of Charles D. Haven called and no claimant appeared. The officers engaged in the seizure gave their testimony specifying the quantity and nature of the goods and where found. Judge Williams declared the liquors and vessels forfeited to the state and that warrant be issued for the destruction of the liquors and for the destruction of the vessels.

After the disposition of these two cases, which involved a very large quantity of liquor, the case against the liquor and vessels seized at the City pharmacy, Willis Almy, manager, was called. Mr. Almy put in an appearance.

The boiler of the heating apparatus of the Calvary Baptist church was cracked by the turning on of cold water which the boiler overheated Thursday evening and prevented the holding of the Christmas festival. The service will be held on the Seventh-day Baptist church Sunday morning.

The liquors involved in this case were two quarts of whiskey and two quarts of brandy bottled, three quarts of whiskey in a jug and one bottle whiskey partially filled and a small quantity of whiskey in a tumbler. This case was contested, Attorney Asgard appearing for the state, as he did in the other cases, and Attorney Ledyard for defendant.

Chief Brandford told of the finding of the liquors, most of which was in the safe and which was opened at the request of the witness. Empty bottles, two of them, that had contained whiskey were found in an overcoat pocket hanging on the side wall; a bottle bearing the label of another drugist and which contained drops of gin was seen but not seized. The testimony of the chief was corroborated in the main by Policemen Brown and Mitchell and Constable Beardon.

John Michael, who had been arrested for drunkenness, when in cell in police station, was overheard saying to a fellow prisoner that he had bought four drinks of whiskey at the City pharmacy. He was summoned as a witness and testified to the purchase of the drinks, but got considerably mixed as to the date of the transactions. Judge Williams adjourned the seized liquors forfeited to the state and that warrant be issued for their destruction. Three new civil cases were entered. All other cases on the civil and criminal dockets were continued.

At the preliminary meeting for the formation of an associated charities society held in Memorial building, the following were appointed a committee to draft rules and regulations applicable to the society: Rev. S. M. Cathart, Milo M. Clarke, H. Hobart Babcock, Dr. Alfred H. Spicer, Jr., and F. N. Wilcox. Every organization engaged in any charitable work will be invited to send representatives to the next meeting and help form the new society, which will endeavor to systematize all that relates to charity in Westerly.

Niantic encampment of Odd Fellows, Hope Valley, has elected these officers: Harry Shepard, chief patriarch; H. E. Lewis, high priest; E. A. Barber, senior warden; J. H. Buteau, junior warden; G. H. Olney, secretary; C. D. Wood, treasurer; S. E. Barber, financial secretary.

The cars of the Pawcatuck Valley road are now able to make complete trips from the railway station to Watch Hill, having been held up for nearly a week by the effects of the storm.

The cantata The World Made Flesh will be given next Sunday evening in the Congregational church, Stonington, with these soloists: Mrs. James Carson, Miss Lillian Brayton, Harry Coleman and George Dunham.

Christmas Entertainment—Not a Telephone in Use—Abnormally High Tides.
There was a Christmas tree and entertainment at the church at Dunn's Corners Monday evening. A well prepared programme was carried out by the children. After the exercises Santa Claus came in, picked gifts from the tree and presented each member of the school a present, candy and oranges. Refreshments were served to all and a social time enjoyed.

The storm of Saturday night did considerable damage to the telephone lines. Many poles are down and the arms are torn away from some poles. Not a telephone is in use in this vicinity.

Very high tides prevailed along the shore and in the small ponds. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lamphere of the Post road entertained a party of friends on Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi W. Bliven and Mrs. H. A. Macomber spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Macomber in Westerly.

The pupils of the upper grades of the Dunn's Corners school presented Mrs. Sherman Green, formerly Miss Knowlton, a fine picture as a wedding gift.

Thursday was the coldest day of winter so far; the thermometer marked 3 above zero.

RICHMOND
Sunday School Has Christmas Tree—Holiday Visitors.
Saturday evening at the Baptist church in Shannock there was a Christmas tree and entertainment for the Sunday school.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rouse of Norwich spent Christmas with their son, Dr. H. E. Rouse of Shannock. Miss Edna Dawley, who has been for

SAID "MERRY CHRISTMAS!"

But Fireman Did Not Get Out into Storm to Fight Fire.
Responding to a call for help a member of the Stratford fire department on Sunday afternoon said: "Merry Christmas! Anyone is foolish to take a day off on such a day as this." And then he went back to his snug fireless corner and declined to turn an alarm or to notify the other members of the department.

Fire Chief Judson is investigating this gross neglect of duty on the part of one of the members of the fire department and just as soon as he can learn the identity of the man who refused to respond to the urgent message which was delivered to him he promises to prefer charges against the fireman. In fact, Judson is more than angry. He is mad—mad clear through—and he says he will have the guilty one not only expelled from the department, but that he will use his influence to have the man ostracized by the rest of the folks in Stratford.

Mrs. Brown, a sister of J. W. Thompson, discovered that the chimney of Mr. Thompson's house in East Broadway was on fire. This was at 1:45 Sunday afternoon. She at once telephoned to the St. John drug store and asked Eugene Kelly to send members of the fire department to the house.

Relly sent a clerk over to the truck house with the request, but the fireman who took the message gave no glance out of doors, saw the snow swirling down in dense clouds and then laughed, declining to call out his fellows in such weather. Some ten minutes later another call was sent to the truck house, but this time with the same treatment accorded the first.

In the meantime Neal and Tom Thompson had extinguished the fire in the chimney—Bridgeport Telegram.

It will be a wonderful blunder if our warships shall manage to capture 260 tons of coal, as the Philadelphia Record says. It would be an elephant on four hands.

Neak—The Christmas tree and exercises held at St. Joseph's church Wednesday evening were largely attended, and the audience was greatly pleased with the programme. There were recitations by Joseph Doonett, James Rollins, Little Miss Rollins and Frances McDonald.
